

Chantal Duchene

Director General of GART, french association of Public Transport Local Authorities.

Economist and lawyer, Chantal has focused on planning, financing and contracts in transport (motorways in a first time, public transport after). Immediately before coming to GART in 2001, Chantal was, between 1997 and 2001, the Director of Infrastructure and Transport in Ile-de-France Region (Paris region) and the project manager of the Urban Mobility Plan of Ile-de-France Region.

Before, she worked for several units of the Ministry of Equipment and Transport : adviser for the Director of Economic and International Affairs, Director of Mobility department of CERTU (Studies Center for Urban Transport and Landuse), officer in SETRA (Studies Center for roads and expressways).

Chantal is member of working group on transport of the European Council of Municipalities and Regions. She is also member of the board of the Association of European Transport.