

Jorge Manuel Alves Lopes

Senior Project Manager – Information Systems and Communications

Brisa, Auto-Estradas de Portugal

Place and year of birth: Proença-a-Nova, Portugal, 1969.

Jorge is graduated in Informatics Engineering by the New University of Lisbon (UNL) and holds a master degree in Geographic Information Systems from Instituto Superior Técnico (IST).

His working career started as research engineer for the geophysical division of Portuguese Geological Survey and assistant at informatics department of Faculty of Science and Technology of UNL, from 1995 to 2000. In 2000 he joined the national road authority (IEP), to support the information systems division.

Since 2001 he is project manager in Brisa, and is responsible for information and communication systems for the Centre for Operations Coordination (CCO).